Wendell, NC— October 15, 2021, the Wendell-Wake County Branch branch of the NAACP will endeavor to honor the memory of the branch's charter President Mrs. Ruth H. Morgan, with a headstone dedication. In conjunction with various sponsors, the branch member, the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church members, and her family, we will take this moment to remember her life and celebrate the legacy of justice work that we continue.

The celebration continues October 16, 2021, at the Arts Conference Event Center as the branch holds the 76th Mary E. Perry Freedom Fund Banquet. Ms. Perry is Wendell Wake County NAACP's distinguished leader who has led the Wake County Branch by example for over five decades. This year, our keynote speaker is state Senator Daniel T. Blue, Jr., Senate Blue, who served twenty-two years in the House of Representatives, where he was twice elected Speaker of the House. He was elected in 2006 to the State Senate, where he is the Democratic Leader.
